

Pathways to Law
lamission.edu/law/pathways

Do you care about people? Do you care about justice, truth, fairness?

Do you want to impact people's lives and make a difference in your community?

Are you responsible? Do you honor your commitments?

Do you like to solve problems? Are you an independent thinker?

Do you like to read? Do you like to write? Do you like to talk?

Do you want respect? Do you want to be asked your opinion?

Do you want to be a leader or trusted advisor? Do you want a good income?

Then consider a career in "the law"

Here are some career paths that you can take with or without a law degree:

Lawyer

Criminologist

Judge

Customs Agent

Mediator

DEA/TSA/DHS Agent

Paralegal

U.S. Marshal

Secretary

Detective

Consultant

FBI Agent

Educator

Police Officer

Corporate attorney

Juvenile Correctional Officer

Court administrator

Parole Officer

Governmental administrator

Probation Officer

Politician

Social Worker

Border Patrol Agent

Criminal Investigator

Correctional Officer